COMMENTS:

This bill would create the Personal Information and Privacy Act of 1999, which would make certain legislative findings and declarations regarding the right to privacy.

The March 17, 1999, amendments eliminated the provisions of the bill that would have limited the ability of any state or local governmental agency, business or not-for-profit organization to collect and use personal information about individuals. As a result, the department's analysis of SB 129 as introduced December 22, 1998, no longer applies.

This bill would no longer impact the department's programs and operations or state income tax revenue.
